

MacRostie Winery & Vineyards, Russian River Valley (Sonoma County, California) Pinot Noir Thale's Vineyard 2016 ($58): The grapes for this elegant wine come from the northern end of California's Russian River Valley. You might savor it even more knowing that a scant 40 cases of the wine have been produced. This palate pleaser rests as light as silk in the mouth, offering bright berry nuances along with gentle hints of spice, cocoa and vanilla, while gentle and inviting acidity makes for a nice finish.
